Dear Friends

Mount Majura springs into to life, the lizards are out and about after winter hibernation, the frogs call, the spring flowers are beautiful and the weeds raise their ugly heads. This is a time to explore and assist nature: see what happens at our guided walks and give a hand at our working parties.

FoMM holds one public announced working party each month. However this is not sufficient to keep on top of weeds and secure the great work we've done. I'll therefore organise some additional working bees within the next month and circulate requests for help with "FoMM extra work" on short notice. I hope some of you can come along. Some extra work is scheduled this coming Saturday.

Please let me know if you have the capacity to conduct work in your own time during the week - any additional help will be very much appreciated!

Majura Paddock Hand Weeding Session – Saturday, 6 October

We completed the planting of trees and shrubs at the Majura paddock and focus now to improve the native ground cover. It is wonderful to see local forbs such as Bulbine lilies and native geraniums appearing at the paddock, some as a result of natural regeneration, some from direct seeding. Assist the spread of natives by hand removing introduced species at sensitive sites where we avoid the use of herbicide. Come early for an introduction of the native and introduced ground cover species.

When: Saturday, 6 October, 3-6pm, come for the whole time or less.

Where: meet at the parkCare notice board opposite the Hackett water reservoir off Rivett / French Streets (view this map).

The ACT Legislative Assembly election has been set for the 20 October. Nature conservation has a very low profile in the ACT. I propose to write to the main parties about what we expect from an incoming government; here are some issues. If you have further suggestions please let me know by the end of this week.
